MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Plaintiff, a former prisoner at the Loudon County Detention Facility, filed a motion seeking to proceed in forma pauperis in a civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. §1983. (See Docs. 1, 2.) Finding that the motion was submitted on the wrong form, the Court entered an Order on August 2, 2024, (1) directing the Clerk to send Plaintiff an “Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis with Supporting Documentation” and (2) providing Plaintiff (30) days within which to return the completed form (Doc. 6). The deadline has passed, but Plaintiff has not complied with the Order or otherwise communicated with the Court.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b), the Court may dismiss a case for a failure of the plaintiff “to prosecute or to comply with these rules or a court order.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b); see also Knoll v. Am. Tel. & Tel. Co., 176 F.3d 359, 362–63 (6th Cir. 1999); see also

Rogers v. City of Warren, 302 F. App'x 371, 375 n.4 (6th Cir. 2008) (“Although Rule 41(b) does not expressly provide for a sua sponte dismissal (the rule actually provides for dismissal on defendant’s motion), it is well-settled that the district court can enter a sue sponte order of dismissal under Rule 41(b).” (citing Link v. Wabash R.R., 370 U.S. 626, 630 (1962))). The Court examines four factors when considering dismissal under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b):

(1) whether the party’s failure is due to willfulness, bad faith, or fault; (2) whether the adversary was prejudiced by the dismissed party’s conduct; (3) whether the dismissed party was warned that failure to cooperate could lead to dismissal; and (4) whether less drastic sanctions were imposed or considered before dismissal was ordered.

Wu v. T.W. Wang, Inc., 420 F.3d 641, 643 (6th Cir. 2005).

First, Plaintiff’s failure to timely comply with the Court’s Order was due to Plaintiff’s willfulness or fault. Plaintiff has chosen not to comply with, or even respond to, the Court’s Order. Second, the Court finds that Plaintiff’s failure to comply with the Court’s Order has resulted in prejudice to Defendants, who have appeared and filed motions to defend this action. (See Docs. 8, 9, 10.) Third, the Court’s Order expressly warned Plaintiff that failure to timely submit the proper form would result in the dismissal of this action. (Doc. 6, at 1.) And finally, the Court concludes that alternative sanctions are not warranted, as Plaintiff’s failure to comply with the Court’s clear instructions has left the Court unable to move this case forward. On balance, these factors support dismissal of this action under Rule 41(b).

Moreover, “while pro se litigants may be entitled to some latitude when dealing with sophisticated legal issues, acknowledging their lack of formal training, there is no cause for extending this margin to straightforward procedural requirements that a layperson can comprehend as easily as a lawyer.” Jourdan v. Jabe, 951 F.2d 108, 109 (6th Cir. 1991).

Plaintiff's pro se status did not prevent her from complying with the Court's Order, and Plaintiff's pro se status does not mitigate the balancing of factors under Rule 41(b).

The Court is unable to determine the merits of Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis (Doc. 2) due to her failure to comply with the Court's Order. Accordingly, Plaintiff is ASSESSED¹ the filing fee of $405.00, and this action will be DISMISSED.

The Court CERTIFIES that any appeal from this action would not be taken in good faith and would be totally frivolous. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3); Fed. R. App. P. 24(a).

AN APPROPRIATE JUDGMENT ORDER WILL ENTER.
